(Mr. Thariathu Kunjithommen stood up to ask a question.)

PRESIDENT: A great deal of postmortem examination of this kind has been held and it is hoped fervently by the Chair that after what has happened yesterday no further question of this sort will be put as the answers and the questions are of a uniform character. The only result perhaps is a sense of satisfaction in the mind of the honourable member that he has done what he regards as paramount importance. Certain steps have been taken yesterday with a view to deal with this problem. Let it be hoped for some time atleast that there would be a cessation of this question.

MR. THARIATHU KUNJITHOMMEN: ഇനിമേൽ അങ്ങിനെ സംഭവിക്കുകയില്ലെന്നു വിശ്വസിക്കുന്നു.
